COURSE OF STUDIES

Our students pursue a rigorous schedule of college preparatory classes for all four years in the Upper School. All classes at Canterbury School are taught at the Honors level, with Advanced Placement and Independent Studies providing extra challenge. AP courses are provided in all core subject areas. Last year, 86% of students received a passing grade or higher on AP exams.

Please see our website for a detailed listing of course offerings:

Enrollment in AP is determined by academic department policies and/or prerequisite courses.

ATHLETICS AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Athletics, clubs and organizations play key roles in student life. Canterbury offers an array of varsity sports for student participation including: football, soccer, baseball, basketball, volleyball, swimming, tennis, golf, cross-country, track and field, softball and lacrosse. There are well over 20 active clubs on campus including: yearbook, newspaper, chess, mock trial and Model UN. Club members meet on a regular basis throughout the year. Additionally, students participate in a variety of local, state, national and international scholastic competitions.
